"A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of Nature."
EMERSON

Dedication ... Devotion ... the signs of loyal service to D.H.S. for twenty-two years and a total of forty-three years in public school work ... the ever-ready yearbook photographer ... the willing counselor ... the versatile man in the little green car ... a Tiger fan at Senior ribbon parties and on the sidelines with camera ... a Cowboy fan in his easy chair ... a smiling friend with the puffing pipe ...

T. D. CHISM

Work ... projects ... the signs of training ... the learning process
... the new vocational courses
... the modern equipment ...
the smell of acid ... the spot of grease ... the polished wood ...
the blotch of ink ...

"The reward of a
thing well done,
is to have done it."
EMERSON

Ability ... willingness ... the signs of talent at DHS ... Stuart's poems ... a song ... the blast of a trumpet ... a witch's costume ... a jolly jig ... a play festival ... a talent-for-toys show
... a gift to be shared ...

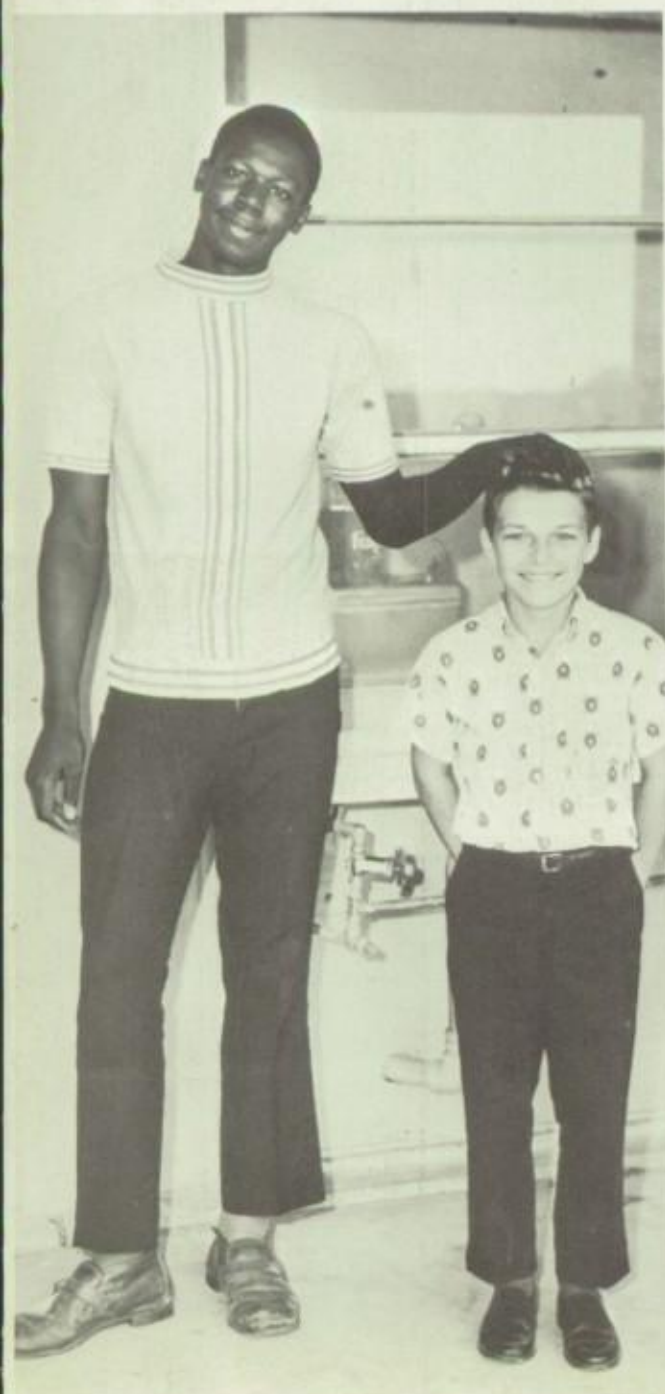

"To fill the hour -
that is happiness."
EMERSON

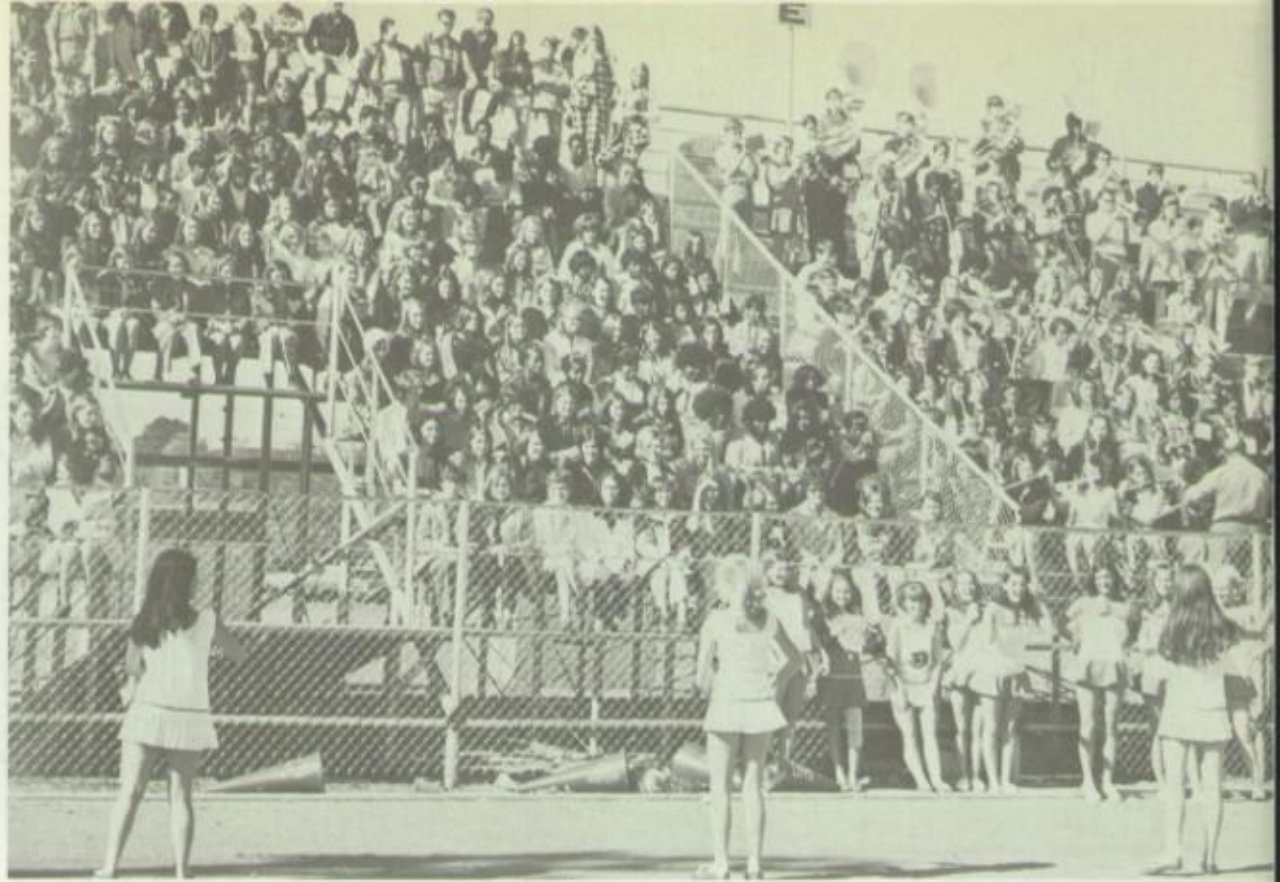

The milling about of students on campus ... a dance in the gym ... chess games in study hall ... the quiet moments, the loud times ... the long and short ... the good times and even the bad ... the signs of social activity at DHS.

"We are symbols, and inhabit symbols."

EMERSON

Spirit ... music ... speeches ... signs of support to DHS ... an active part in school life ... caring about the team ... a concern for what happens ... excitement ...
 anticipation ... enthusiasm.

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Daingerfield Tigers

1970 District Champs

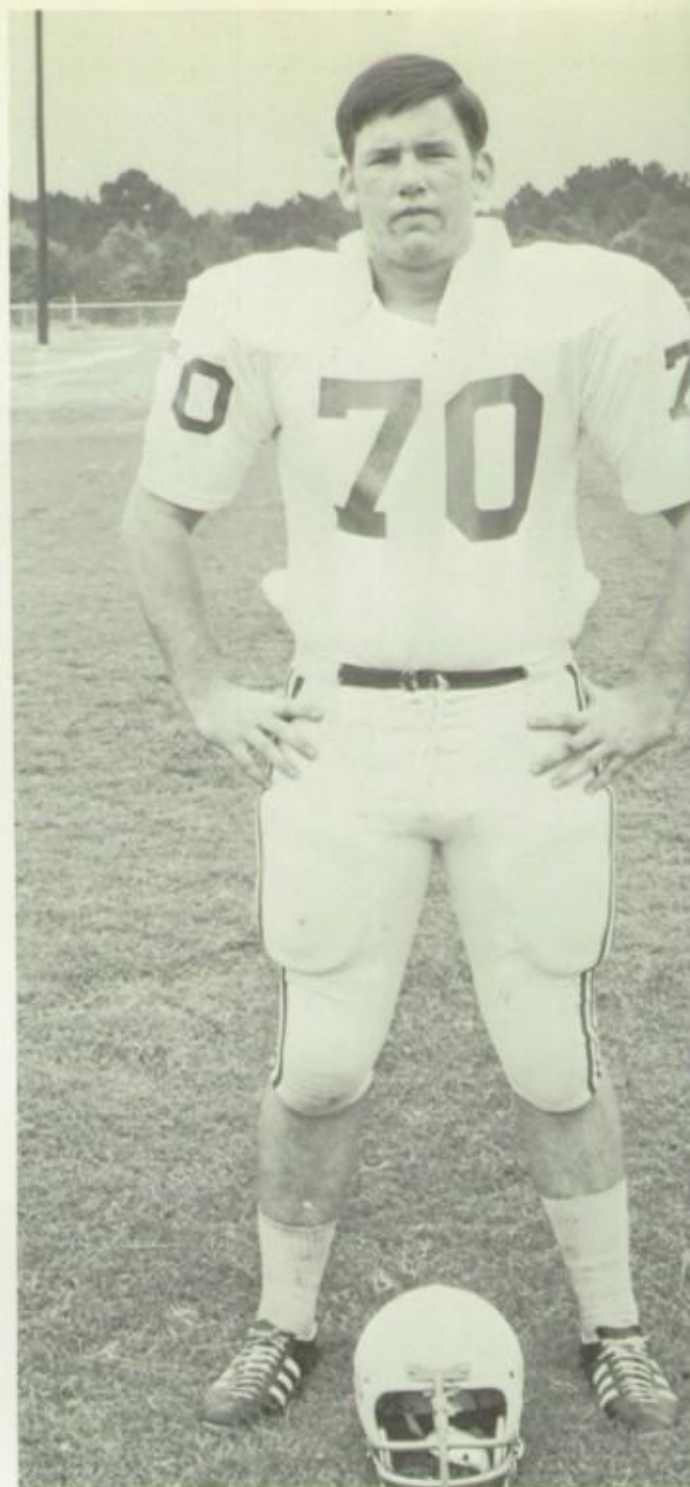

The 1970 Tiger football team rolled over seven straight foes, three of which were in the district, before losing to non-district Mexia. After that loss, the Tigers went on to defeat Sulphur Springs and Mt. Pleasant and claim the district 7-AAA championship and advance to the state playoffs. The playoffs were short lived as the blue and white Tigers lost to Jacksonville in bi-district.
